DR. KEYSER'S

PECTORAL SYRUP

CURES CONSUMPTION, CURES BRONCHITIS,

CURES COLDS, CURES ASTHMA,

CURES ALL DISEASES OF THE LUNGS.

I INVITE ATTENTION to some of the most extraordinary cures by my

PECTORAL SYRUP.

They are at home and any one who has doubts can inquire of the persons who have been cured by it.

Dr. KEYSER IS PREPARED AT ANY TIME TO EXAMINE LUNGS, WITHOUT CHARGE, FOR ALL THOSE WHO NEED HIS MEDICINE.

ATTEND TO YOUR COLDS.—A case of five years standing cured by

DR. KEYSER'S

PECTORAL SYRUP.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 11th, 1860.

DR. KEYSER:—My wife has been afflicted with a bad cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which for several years back had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case I procured some of your Pectoral Cough Syrup. I bought the first time a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself to a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this if you desire to do so.

WM. WILSON,
Alderman, Fifth Ward.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 18th, 1858.

DR. KEYSER:—Although not an advocate of Patent Medicine in general, it affords me great pleasure to recommend your Pectoral Syrup. As a medicine it is well worthy the attention of any person who may in any manner be affected with coughs, colds and hoarseness of any kind, and for the peculiar qualifications for removing all that disagreeable sensation attending a cold.

I have been more or less, in my life affected with the severest colds of hoarseness. At times my throat would become so closed as to prevent my speaking above a whisper, and by taking a few doses of the above Syrup it would relieve me entirely.

In recommending this medicine, I must unhesitatingly say that it is the best medicine I ever found, purporting to cure the above; nor should any family be without this remedy for diseases so prevalent.

Yours, most respectfully,
EDWARD J. JONES,
Cashier, Citizens' Deposit Bank.

STEUBENVILLE, O., March 14th, 1859.

I have used Dr. Keyser's Cough Syrup for a bad cough of several years standing, and can cheerfully say it is the best medicine for the same that I have ever taken.

J. W. PRICE.

COL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—DR. KEYSER—Dear Sir: Excuse the delay of my acknowledging the excellence of your Pectoral Syrup sooner. I take great pleasure in saying that it is all you say it is. IT KNOCKED THE NOISE OUT OF MY COUGH, and the worst one I was ever afflicted with; I have not used more than one half of the bottle, and can and do wish that it who are afflicted would give it as fair a trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "It is no quack medicine." I would not suffer another such an attack for any consideration, or at any cost. I am confident I can breathe more freely than I ever did. I shall always acknowledge a debt of gratitude for inventing so excellent a remedy.—You are at liberty to use my name in this regard, as you think proper.

E. F. PRATT,
Messenger, Common Council, Pittsburgh, Pa.

PITTSBURG, May 11th, 1859.

N. B.—I am no stranger to my fellow citizens, and all who entertain doubts can consult me personally.

E. F. P.

READ THE TRUTH—DR. KEYSER: I have a daughter who has taken several medicines for a bad cough, who has taken several medicines for a bad cough, without benefit—among them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I purchased from you a bottle of your PECTORAL SYRUP, and before she had used half a bottle she was relieved. The second bottle cured her entirely of her cough.

JOHN DARIN,
Robison street, Allegheny.

PITTSBURG, December 31st, 1853.

A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county.—I had a coughing and spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued eight months, I employed the best physicians in the country, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your PECTORAL SYRUP, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from the coughing and spitting. I had dispaired of ever getting well, and I think it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case.

JOHN C. LITTLE, Peebles township.
Witness—B. M. KEE.

PATTON TOWNSHIP, April 14th, 1857.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Some time ago, an old neighbor of mine was very ill, with a bad cough which every one supposed to be consumption. His relatives told me he had taken every remedy they heard of without benefit; his brother came to see him die, and all were confirmed in the belief that he could not live. I had about the third of a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which I gave him, and it entirely cured him, to the astonishment of all. What makes this case more remarkable, is the extreme age of the man, he being about eighty years old. I have no doubt the Pectoral saved his life.

JOHN M'GINNIS.

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP IN BLAIRSVILLE.—Please send me another supply of your valuable "Pectoral Syrup." Almost everybody around us has the sold and are inquiring for "Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup." We have sold sixteen bottles last week, and are now entirely out. Mr. Alter and Mr. P. Maher, both of Blairsville, Pa., tell us they would not be without it in their families. In fact, all who use it once want it again.

ANOTHER NEW CERTIFICATE—DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I have been troubled with a cough and cold for several weeks—so bad was it that I could not sleep. I had the advice and prescriptions from three of the best physicians in the city, whom I could name, but do not do so. I finally procured a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which cured me entirely. Signed,

J. W. SIMONTON,

"STOP THAT COUGHING."—"How can I do it?"—"Go to Keyser's on Wood street and get a bottle of his Cough Pectoral, and if that don't cure you, your case must be desperate indeed." This is a specimen of the colloquy one hears almost every day in cold catching seasons of the year. As we can, from actual experiment, cheerfully concur in the adviser's admonition as above, for we have tried the "Pectoral" in a most stubborn case, with entire success. Near two weeks ago we went to Pittsburg with one of the most distressing contrary, mulish, unsubdunable coughs we have ever experienced since our advent upon this mundane sphere. We coughed steadily and laboriously for one whole week, in hopes of tiring it out, but it was no go. In fact it seemed rather to improve by practice and to have acquired strength, potency and distressibility by the operation. In this state of the siege, we coughed our way to Keyser's, 140, Wood street, procured a fifty cent bottle of the Pectoral, took it according to directions, and in forty-eight hours we were master of the field, the enemy having unconditionally surrendered after a brief but unequal conflict with so formidable an adversary as Keyser's Cough Pectoral.—Brownsville Clipper, Dec. 14th, 1859.

RIGHT?—OR NOT, GIRLS?

Was I right, or was I not?
Tell me, girls, and tell me true;
You, I mean, who've husbands got,
Was I wrong to do so too?

No—I'm sure to die a maid
Ne'er was meant to be my lot;
Hymen called, and I obeyed;
Was I right, or was I not?

When the youth that pleased my mind
Told his love in language sweet,
Could I see him, fond and kind,
Sigh and languish at my feet?

No, no, no. it was in vain—
Frowns and threats were quite forgot;
Soon at church I eased his pain—
Was I right, or was I not?

This I know—a single life
Never was designed for me;
No, no, no, 'tis naught but strife,
That you surely could agree.

Girls, get married—that's your plan—
Cupid will assist the plot;
Then, like me, secure your man;
Am I right, or am I not.

"I RISE TO SEEK THE LIGHT."

I saw a little blade of grass,
Just peeping from the sod,
And asked it why it sought to pass
Beyond its parent clod?
It seemed to raise its head,
All sparkling, fresh and bright,
And wondering at the question, said,
"I rise to seek the light."

I asked the eagle why his wing
To ceaseless flight was given,
As if he spurned each earthly thing,
And knew no home but heaven!
He answered, as he fixed his gaze,
Undazzled at the sight,
Upon the Sun's meridian blaze,
"I rise to seek the Light."

I asked my soul, What means this thirst
For something yet beyond?
What means this eagerness to burst
From every earthly bond?
It answers, and I feel it glow
With fires more warm, more bright,
"All is too dull, too dark below,
I rise to seek the Light."

THE RESTORED.

A THRILLING REVOLUTIONARY TALE.

God is everywhere His words are on the hearts. He is on the battle field or in our peaceful home. Praise be to His holy name.

It was on the wilds of Wissahicon, on the day of battle, as the noonday sun came through the thickly clustered leaves, that two men met in deadly conflict near the reefs which rose like the rock of some primeval world, at least one thousand feet above the dark waters of the Wissahicon.

The man with the dark brown face, and darker grey eye, flashing with deadly light, and a muscular form clad in a blue frock of the Revolution—is a continental named Warren.

The other man with long black hair, drooping along his cadaverous face, is clad in a half military costume of a tory refugee. This is a murderer of Paoli, named Dehaney.

They met by accident, and now they fought not with sword and rifle, but with long and deadly hunting knives they struggled, twining and twisting on the green sward.

At last the tory is down—down on the turf, with the knee of the continental upon his breast—the up raised knife flashed death in his face.

"Quarters! I yield," gasped the tory, as the knee was pressed upon his breast, "spare me, I yield."

"My brother," said the patriot in that tone of deadly hate, "my brother cried for quarter at Paoli, and even as he clung to his knees, you stuck that knife into his heart. O, I will give you quarters of Paoli."

And as his hand raised for the blow, and his teeth were clenched with deadly hate, he paused for a moment, then pinioned the tory's arms, and with a rapid stride dragged him to the verge of the rock, and held him quivering over the abyss.

"Mercy!" gasped the tory, turning ashy pale by turns, as that awful gulf yawned below. "Mercy! I have a wife and child at home—spare me."

The continental, with his muscular strenth gathered for the effort, shook the murderer once more over the abyss, then hissed his bitter sneer in his face.

"My brother had a wife and two children. The moring after the night of Paoli that wife was a widow, those children fatherless. Would you not like to go and beg your life of that widow and her fatherless children?"

The proposal made by the continental in mockery and bitter hate, was taken to the widow, and to have the privilege of begging his life. After a moment's serious thought, the patriotic soldier consented. He bound the tory's arms still tighter, placed him on the rocks again, and led him to the woods. A quiet cottage, embossed among the the trees, broke on their eyes. They entered the cottage. There, beside the desolate hearthstone, sat the widow and children.

She sat there, a matronly woman of about twenty-three years, with a face faded by care—a deep dark eye, and long black hair hanging in a disheveled state about her shoulders. On one side was a dark haired boy of some six years, on the other side a girl one year younger, with light blue eyes. The Bible—an old and venerable volume—lay open upon the mother's knee. And now the pale face tory flung himself upon his knees, and confessed he had butchered her husband on the night of Paoli, and begged his life at her hands.

"Spare me for the sake of my wife—child—"

He had expected this pitiful moan would touch the widow's heart, but not one relenting gleam softened her face.

"The Lord shall judge between us," she said in a cold icy tone, that froze the murderer's heart. "Look, the Bible is on my lap; I will close the volume, and this boy shall open it, and place his fingers at random upon a verse."

There was a silence. The continental soldier, who had sworn to avenge his brother's death, stood with dilating eyes and parted lips. The culprit kneeling upon the floor, with his face like discolored clay, felt his heart leap to his throat.

Then, in a clear bold voice, the widow read this line from the Old Testament.—It was short, yet terrible:

"That man shall die!"

Look! the brother springs forward to plunge a knife into the murderer's heart, but the tory, pinioned as he is, clings to the widow's knees. He begs that one more trial may be made by the little girl, the child of five years old, with the golden hair and laughing eyes.

The widow consents. There is an awful pause. With a smile in her eye, without knowing what she was doing, the little girl opens the Bible as it lay on her mother's knee; she turned her face away, and placed her finger upon a line.

The awful silence grows deeper The deep drawn breaths of the brother, and broken gasp of the murderer, alone disturb the stillness; the widow and dark haired boy were breathless. The little girl, as she caught a feeling of awe from those about her, stood breathless, her face turned aside, and her tiny finger resting on the line of life or death.

At length, gathering courage, the widow bent her eye upon the page, and read. It was a line from the New Testament:

"Love your enemies!"

"Oh! book of terrible majesty, and childlike love—of sublimity that crushes the heart with rapture—you never shone more stronly than there in that lonely cot of the Wissahicon when you saved the murderer's heart.

Now look how wonderful are the ways of Heaven. That very night as the widow sat by her fireside—sat there with a crushed heart and hot eyelids, thinking of her husband who now lay mouldering on the drenched soil of Paoli—there was a tap at the door. She opened it, and that husband, living, though covered with wounds, was in her arms.

He had fallen at Paoli, but not in death, he was alive, and his wife lay panting on his bosom.

That night there was a prayer in the wood embowed cottage of Wissahicon.

Tiger Chase by Baboons.

The following account of a tiger chase is extracted from the North "Sphinx," a regimental paper, published at Graham's Town. The writer, after alluding to his sporting experiences of all kinds, and in all quarters of the globe, declares that he never witnessed so novel or intensely exciting a chase as that about to be described:—Not long ago I spent a few days at Fort Brown, a small military post on the banks of the Great Fish river, where my friend W. was stationed. One evening, as my friend and I were returning home, after a somewhat fatiguing day's buck-shooting, we were startled by hearing the most extraordinary noises, not far from us. It seemed as if all the demons in the infernal regions had been unchained, and were amusing themselves by trying to frighten us poor mortals by their horrid yelling. We stood in breathless expectation, not knowing what could possibly be the cause of this diabolical row, with all sorts of strange conjectures flashing across our minds. Nearer and nearer the yelling and screaming approached, and presently the cause became visible to our astonished eyes. Some three or four hundred yards to our right, upon the brow of a small hill, a spotted leopard (commonly called, in this country, a tiger, though much smaller than the Lord of the Indian jungles,) came in view, bounding along with all the speed and energy of despair, while close behind him followed an enormous pack of baboons, from whose throats proceeded the demonic sounds that had, a few seconds before, so startled us. Our excitement in the chase, as you may suppose, was intense. On went the tiger, making for the river, the baboons following like avenging demons, and evidently gaining ground upon their nearly exhausted foe, though their exulting yells seemed each moment to increase his terror and his speed. They reached the stream, the tiger still a few yards in advance, and with a tremendous bound, he cast himself into the muddy waters and made for the opposite bank. The next moment his pursuers, in admirable confusion, were struggling after him, and as the tiger (now fearfully exhausted,) clambered on the land again, the largest and strongest of the baboons were close at his heels, though many of the pack (the old, the very young, and the weakly) were all struggling in the water. In a few moments all had passed from our sight, behind the brow of the opposite bank; but their increased yelling, now stationary behind the hill, told us that the tiger had met his doom, and that their strong arms and jaws were tearing him limb from limb. As the evening was far advanced, and we were still some miles from home, we did not cross the river to be in at the death; but next morning, a few bones and scattered fragments of flesh and skin showed what had been the tiger's fate. On our return home we were told by some Dutch gentlemen that such hunts are not uncommon when a tiger is rash enough to attack the young baboons, which often happens.—All these creatures for miles around, assemble and pursue their enemy with relentless fury to his death. Sometimes the chase lasts for days, but it invariably closes with the destruction of the tiger—a striking instance that the idea of retributive justice is not confined to man alone.

ATTROCIOUS.—The following startling and highly inflamatory dispatches appear in a newspaper "out West," to which they were specially telegraphed:

Late, Later, Latest, and Highly "Important" from Charleston—Special Dispatches by the Underground Line.

CHARLESTON, Supper Time, Feb. 14. All the babies in the entire South are in "arms," and many in this city are now employed at the breast-works.

"Two and One-Half Minutes Later.—Hundreds of the noblest women of South Carolina are behind the breast-works, and they boldly express their determination to remain there.

"Later Still—Three-Quarters of a Minute.—A number of young ladies were in "arms" during the greater part of last evening, and many more are extremely anxious to follow the selfsacrificing example of their sisters. Shame on you young men.

"One-Quarter of a Minute Later.—We have learned from reliable sources that the study of military tactics will be introduced into the female schools of this State immediately, as the spirited girls declare their willingness to take charge of the South Carolina "Infantry" which is to be "raised!"

"A report from the interior says the negroes 'wear' drilling, but it needs confirmation. Everybody is in a blaze of enthusiasm, and the Gas Company has suspended in consequence."

PATRIOTIC SENTIMENTS.—A gentleman well known in the political circles of Pennsylvania, and highly esteemed, in writing to his son, who is at present a distinguished member of the Senate of this State, uses the following patriotic and truthful language:

"God grant that you may be spared to pursue the good work you have commenced! Sacrifice every prejudice—all pride of opinion—everything, in fine, but principle, to heal the wounds of our bleeding country. For rest assured, my dear boy, that those good men who are instrumental in doing this will live in the hearts of all true lovers of liberty to the end of time—while the mere partizan or miserable demagogue, who attempts to retard the glorious work, will be utterly forgotten, or remembered only with scorn and contempt."

☞ It is vain to stick your finger into the water and, pulling it out, look for a hole; and equally vain to suppose that, however large a space you occupy, the world will miss you when you die.

☞ The youth of friendship is better than its old age.

The Dead Wife.

In comparison with the loss of a wife, all other bereavements are trifles. The wife; she who fills so large a space in the domestic heaven; bitter, bitter is the tear that falls on her clay. You stand beside her grave, and think of the past; an amber colored pathway where the sun shone upon beautiful flowers, or the stars hung overhead. Fain would the soul linger there. No thorns are remembered above the sweet clay, save those your own hands unwillingly planted. Her noble, tender heart lies open to your inmost sight You think of her as gentleness, all beauty and purify. But she is dead. The dear head that has so often lain upon your bosom, now rests upon a pillow of clay. The hends that administered so untiringly are faded, white and cold beneath the gloomy portals. The heart whose every beat measured an eternity of love, lies under your feet. And there is no white arm over your shoulder now—no speaking face to look up in the eye of love—no trembling lips to murmur, "Oh, it is so sad!" There is a strange hush in every room! No smiles to meet you at nightfall—and the clock ticks, and ticks, and ticks! It was sweet music when she could hear it. Now it seems to knell only the hours through which you watch the shadows of death gathering upon the sweet face. But many a tale it telleth of joys past, sorrows shared and beautiful words registered above. You feel that the grave cannot keep her. You know that she is often by your side, an angel presence. Cherish these emotions they will make you happier. Let her holy presence be as a charm to keep you from evil. In all new and pleasant connections gave her a place in your heart.—Never forgot what she has been to you—that she loved you. Be tender to her memory.

MEMORY OF THE ELEPHANT.—A female elephant, belonging to a gentleman at Calcutta, who was ordered from the upper country to Chittagong, on the route thither, broke loose from her keeper, and making her way to the woods, was lost.—The keeper made every excuse to vindicate himself, which the master of the animal would not listen to, but branded the man with carelessness, or something worse; for it was instantly supposed that he sold the elephant. He was tried for it, and condemned to work on the roads for life, and his wife and children were sold for slaves. About twelve years afterwards, this man, who was known to be well acquainted with breaking elephants, was sent into the country with a party to assist in catching wild ones. They came upon a herd, and this man fancied he saw among the group, his long-lost elephant, for which he was condemned. He resolved to approach it—nor could the strongest remonstrances of the party dissuade him from the attempt. Having reached the animal, he spoke to her, when she immediately recognized his voice; she waved her trunk in the air, as a token of salutation, and spontaneously laid down and allowed him to mount her neck. She afterward assisted in taking other elephants, and decoyed three young ones, to which she had given birth in her absence. The keeper returned, and the singular circumstances attending the recovery being told, he regained his character; and, as a recompence for his unmerited suffering, had a pension settled on him for life. This elephant was afterwards in possession of Warren Hastings, when Governor-General of Hindostan.—Popular Natural History.

A WISE LANDLORD.—One night, a judge, a military officer, and a minister, all adplied for lodging at an inn where there was but one spare bed, and the landlord was called upon to decide which had the best claim of the three.

"I have laid fifteen years in the garrison at B.," said the officer.

"I have sat as a judge twenty years in R.," said the judge.

"With your leave, gentlemen, I have stood in the ministry twenty-five years at N.," said the minister.

"That settles the dispute," said the landlord. "You Mr. Captain, have lain fifteen years—you, Mr. Judge, have sat twenty years—but the aged pastor has stood five and twenty years, so he certainly has the best right to the bed."

RECEIPT FOR A HAPPY HOME.—Six things says Hamilton, are requisite to create a happy home. Integrity must be the architect and tidiness the upholsterer. It must be warmed by affection, and lightened up with cheerfulness, and industry must be the ventilation, renewing the atmosphere and bringing fresh salubrity day by day, while over all as a protecting canopy and glory, nothing will suffice except the blessing of God.

☞ The late Lord Ward, in showing visitors his picture-gallery, used to take out a pistol, and say: "Now, if any man will tell me that that's a Copy, I'll—shoot him. What's your candid opinion?"

Politics and Politicians.

The Erie City Dispatch has an article on the evils of allowing politicians alone to rule our country, men who care nothing about the welfare of the country, but make a business of politics and make their living and often splendid fortunes by it. Some of our public officers do not come under the head of demagogues and political villains, and, of course, they will not apply the following remarks of the Dispatch, which we copy and fully endorse, and hope to see carried out in coming time:—"The evil hour in the history of this country is now open us—political and sectional demagogues have supplanted the place patriots should occupy and the entire country is going to ruin with lightning speed. The time has arrived when those who love this glorious land of liberty and a free government, under which we have lived so happily and advanced with rapid strides to greatness and power, should act with promptness and hurl demagogues who have created this commotion and imperilled the Union, from their places of power, in whatever section they may be found. In their desire to rule they are willing to ruin the country, and as our modern class of politicians are totally void of honor and patriotism, it is high time that the people should cast off every political prejudice and join in an effort to save the country from anarchy, despotism and ruin. Every creature heretofore placed in power, who thinks more of his party than he does of his country should be compelled to resign, that honest patriots could be sent to represent the great Union sentiment of the country. When the power of the government is relinquished into the hands of designing and traitorous demagogues, who use that power for their own individual benefit, disregarding the sentiment of their constituents, it is time for all to despair of a happy terminatien to the difficulties which now beset us. As a journalist and who values his country's prosperity and Union above all price, we are willing to aid all Union men in any effort which they may devise for the preservat.on of our government. Let our people act—let them ponder over the fact that the evil hour is now upon us—that we are in the hands of political villians and sectional traitors—that the love of country must predominate over party or else we must content ourselves to live in contention amid civil war and domestic broils. Would that there were in this broad land one honest and disinterested lover of his country, who would rise, embued with the spirit of Washington, to teach our people the duty they owe to civil and religious liberty, in the trying times now upon us."

A RIDE WITH A CAR LOAD OF HOGS.—The Springfield Republican of Thursday says that a poor wanderer from that city, who wished to make his way East as cheap and soon as possible, had a difficult and disagreeable passage to Springfield, over the Western Railroad, on Monday evening. While the eastern stock train was standing upon the track in Greenbush, Monday afternoon, the economical traveler got inside of a freight car loaded with live hogs, consigned to Hartford or some other point on the Southern Road. The car was uncomfortably filled, and the time consumed by a freight train between Albany and Springfield being nearly eight hours, the new passenger became weary and fell asleep with his swinish companions. The latter being hungry, and considering the room of the former better than his company, they resolved upon a lunch, and commenced devouring the poor fellow. One of his ears were badly bitten, his face disfigured and both his boots fairly gnawed from his feet, while the remaining portions of his body and garments were indescribably defiled. He was not discovered until the train arrived in Springfield.

A QEER PEOPLE.—Chambers' Journal discussing a recent book of missionary travels in Africa, thus alludes to one of the tribes which are found in that terra incognita:

"But the strangest of all the stories told of the Dokes, who live along the moist, warm bamboo woods to the the south of Kaffa and Susa.—Only four feet high, of a dark olive color, savage and naked, they have neither houses nor temples, neither fire or human food. They live only on ants, mice, and serpents, diversified by a few roots and fruits; they let their nails grow long, like talons, the better to dig for ants, and the more easily to tear to pieces their favorite snakes.

They do not marry, but live indiscriminative lives of animals, multiplying very rapidly, and with very little maternal instinct. The mother nurses her children for only a short time, accustoming it to eat ants and serpents as soon as possible; and when it can help itself, it wanders away where it will, and the mother thinks no more about it. The Dokes are invaluable as slaves and are taken in large numbers. The slave hunters hold up bright colored clothes as soon as they come to the moist, warm bamboo woods where these human monkeys live and the poor Dokes cannot resist the attraction offered by such superior people. They crowd around them, and are taken in thousands

In slavery they are docile, attached, obedient, with few wants and excellent health. They have only one fault—a love of ants, mice and serpents, and a habit of speaking to Yer with their heads on the ground, and their heels in the air. Yer is their idea of a superior power, to whom they talk in this comical nature when they are dispirited or angry, or tired of ants or snakes and long for unknown food. The Dokes seem to come nearest all people yet discovered to that terrible cousin of humanity—the ape."

NORTH ALABAMA STILL FOR UNION.—Hon. G. W. Lane, who was recently confirmed as Judge for the Northern and Southern districts of Alabama, will, it is said, endeavor to hold his Court at Athens, in the Union part of that State. The Tuscumbia North Alabamian of the 22d instant, contains the proceedings of a public meeting held at Frankfort, in Alabama, at which the following resolutions, among others of a similar character, were passed: Resolved, That we approve the course pursued by our delegates, Messrs. Watkins and Steele, in Convention at Montgomery, in not signing the so-called secession ordinance. That secession is inexpedient and unnecessary, and we are opposed to it in any form, and the more so since a majority of the Slave States have refused to go out, either by what is called "Southern co-operation," or "Precipitate Secession," and that the refusal to submit the so-called secession ordinance to the decision of the people is an outrage upon our right and liberty, and manifests a spirit of assumption, unfairness, and dictatorship. That our Congressional nominee, if elected, is to represent us in the United States Congress, and not in the Congress of this so-called "Southern Confederacy."

A BRAVE GIRL.—Here is a little item from a late Texas paper showing the old pioneer spirit still porvading the wives and daughters of the backwoodsmen: The party of Indians who passed through Jack Parker and Palo Pinto counties last week, marking their way with desolation, and striking terror to the stoutest hearts, drew up in front of the residence of Mr. Eubanks, and were holding a parley, and no doubt forming a plan to attack the house. There was not a man on the premises at the time. Mrs. Eubanks, her daughter and several small children, were alone. The yard was enclosed with pickets, about six feet high. Miss Mary Eubanks, the daughter, with unequalled presence of mind for one so young, seized a shot gun, put on her brother's hat and placed a bench near the picketing, so as to peep over without exposing her body, and then deliberately fired at the party, which stratagem and heroic conduct doubtless saved her own life and the lives of her mother and little brothers and sisters, as the the cowardly scamps immediately fled, no doubt believing the house defended by a body of armed men.

AMERICAN ARISTOCRACY—Heroes of the Revolution.—It may be a consolation to "stuck-up people," whose great boast is that they have never been engaged in any "useful employment," to be told the following facts:

Washington was a surveyor and a farmer.
Franklin was a printer.
Greene was a physician.
Sumpter was a shepherd.
Roger Sherman was a shoemaker.
Marion was a farmer, as was also Putnam, Allen and Stark.
Hancock was a shipping merchant.
Morgan was a wagoner.
Trumbull was an artist.
Arnold (who, though a traitor, was a brave man and a good general,) was a book seller and druggist.

PEN AND SCISSORS.

☞ Still lingers—Winter in the lap of Spring.

☞ Ditto—Ameteur beaux around the church doors.

☞ Settled—The P. M. question in this place, as it should be.

☞ Unsettled—Several bills on our books, as they shouldn't be.

☞ See advertisements of property for sale, in another column.

☞ On the carpet—Several aspirants for office at the coming fall election.

☞ Sign no paper without reading it, and drink no water without looking into it.

☞ Married—Mr. John Strange to Miss Mary Strange. Strange, indeed! The next thing may be a little stranger.

☞ The Johnstown Tribune denies the assertion of the Standard that the Zouave corps of that place are about to disband.

☞ W. P. I. Painter, of Lycoming county, has been appointed Superintendent of Public Printing, by Governor Curtin.

☞ We understand that our neighbor of the Standard has received his commission as route(d) agent between the P. O. and depot, at Hollidaysburg.

☞ A comic paper suggests that this being the time for twigs to shoot, it might answer very well, in view of the treason of a well known officer to shoot Twiggs.

☞ Ladies who have a disposition to punish their husbands should recollect that a little warm sunshine will melt an icicle much sooner than a regular north-easter.

Mr. Hassaurek has thanked the President for having appointed him to the highest place in his gift—that is, nine thousand five hundred feet above the ocean, the altitude of Quito the capital of Ecuador.

☞ Martin Van Buren is the only individual who has filled the four highest positions under the American Government. He has been United States Senator, Secretary of State, Vice President and President.

☞ We see it announced that the man who put up a stove-pipe without any profanity expressed or suggested, has been found, and that a company has secured him for exhibition in the principal towns and cities. It is said he will draw better than the pipe.

☞ Dr. Jones of Jones' Eye and Ear Institution, will practice at the Exchange Hotel Hollidaysburg, on the 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th of April, where he will be happy to see his old Altoona patients and all new ones that may need his services.

☞ King, who was arrested not long since at Oxford, Ind., for the murder of Dr. J. H. Rowe, who stopped all night at King's tavern, has been released, owing to the reappearance of the supposed victim. King extensively advertised his arrest, and besought Rowe to "turn up" and prove his innocence, and Rowe seeing the notice, complied. Another proof of the efficacy of advertising.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Card to the Suffering.

The Rev. Wm. Cosgrove, while laboring as a missionary in Japan, was cured of Consumption, when all other means had failed, by a recipe obtained from a learned physician residing in the great city of Jeddo. This recipe has cured great numbers who were suffering from Consumption, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Coughs and Colds, and the debility and nervous depression caused by these disorders.

Desirous of benefitting others, I will send this recipe, which I brought home with me, to all who need it, free of charge.

Dr. Eaton's Infantile Cordial.

Dr. Eaton's Infantile Cordial is remarkable for its wonderful beneficial effects in the treatment of children. For croup, dysentery, and teething, it has never been surpassed, and mothers should at all times be provided with a supply, as they value the lives and the comfort of their little ones.

The preparations of Blood Food are among the most important discoveries of the age. They are not medicines, but food for the blood: already prepared for absorption, pleasant to the taste, and natural in action; and what one gains, he retains. The Blood Food is a scientific discovery, differing from all patent medicines; and for consumption, throat diseases, liver complaints, dyspepsia, and other diseases incident to the human frame, is unequalled for its healing and strengthening qualities.—Columbia, Ohio, Gazette. One of the greatest remedies that has ever been laid before the public, for Fever and Ague, and which have received the highest encomiums from the press and the people, is Dr. Hostetter's Celebrated Bitters. None but the foolish and weak would hesitate to procure these valuable Bitters, and save themselves intense agony. Sold by druggists and dealers generally everywhere. WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND,
FEVER AND AGUE,

And the various affections consequent upon a disordered

STOMACH OR LIVER,

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave. Its reputation at home produced its introduction here, the demand commencing with those of the Fatherland scattered over the face of this mighty country, many of whom brought with them and handed down the tradition of its value. It is now offered to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE.—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.

READ CAREFULLY!

The Genuine highly concentrated Boerhave's Holland Bitters is put up in half-pint bottles only, and retailed at ONE DOLLAR per bottle, or six bottles for FIVE DOLLARS. The great demand for this truly celebrated Medicine has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing.

LOCAL ITEMS.

CHEAP JEWELRY—HOW IT IS MADE.—Within a few months there has sprung up throughout the country numerous institutions known from their flaming advertisements as "dollar stores." Here the most remarkable bargains can be had. Whole sets of jewelry, formerly sold for a small fortune, can be secured for the insignificant sum of one dollar. Does your wife want a set of ear-rings—one dollar will get them. Is she teazing you for a new brooch—the price is only one dollar. She wants a gold locket in which to preserve your daguerreotype—'tis only one dollar. Your sweet heart must have a ring and bracelets—they can be procured for one dollar. 'Tis wonderful what a change has taken place in prices. This is the age of gold. Everything you touch turns into gold as it did to Tantalus of old. It is very difficult to tell which is the servant on the street—Bridget or your wife—for Bridget wears just as showy a necklace, just as shining ear-rings, just as beautiful rings, and, with the exception of her plebian gait and freckled face, is just as handsome a woman.—Then it is quite as difficult to tell who is master—John who sits on the box of the coach, or yourself sitting inside. John sports a gold watch with an immense chain and fob. He wears three magnificent rings on his fingers, and when not in charge of the horses, John swings a gold headed cane. Surely John puts on as many airs as his master, and dresses as well—how can a stranger tell the difference between John and his master? What has wrought this great change in the way of ornament? Has money become more plentiful, or gold cheaper? We will give the solution as furnished by the Scientific American. There is a new metallic alloy extensively used in this country as a substitute for gold. It is a French discovery, and is called by the French, gold oriede. It is manufactured to a large extent in Waterbury, Conn.—It bears a very close resemblance to gold in color, density and fineness of grain, so close that it deceives every one but practical dealers and experts. The fineness of the grain in this alloy gives to those objects of art composed of it a delicacy and a purity of detail that cannot be obtained from bronze. The alloy is essentially ductile and malliable, and can be cast, rolled, drawn, stamped, chased, beaten into a powder or leaves, or treated in other way the artist may desire. The discovery of this new alloy is really wonderful, and its use will have a tendency to place within the reach of all the useful, ornamental and higher products of art. An immense number and amount of articles are manufactured out of alloy and sold South and West, and none but excellent judges can tell it from gold.

MONDAY LAST.—If ever good house-wives had their patience tried, it was on Monday last. It was general moving day, and it did keep people moving. It snew and blew and thew with a vengeance, from early morn till dewy eve, much to the detriment of good furniture and the clean floors left by the women folks for those who came after them. It is an old saying that "three flits are equal to a fire," but we think one less flit on such days as Monday would be worse than a fire. Of course, stoves and fires was in demand, and, as usual, pipe would not suit, or was lost, or dinged or something else were wrong, and to say that every man kept his temper, under the circumstances, would be stretching the truth. Such a thing can't be did without a large supply of restraining grace. But the day is past and many are thankful.

THE LONG AGONY OVER.—Truly "the long agony is over," and all hopes and fears confirmed or dispelled. The Post Master for Altoona has been appointed, and his name is Geo. W. Patton, at least so says Madam Rumor, and this time she speaks correctly. There was a hot siege for that position, and Mr. Blair may well feel relieved, now that the deed is done.—Maledictions dire will no doubt be heaped upon him, but it would have been the same had he appointed any other man. But one could be appointed, consequently all the others must be disappointed. Let those who have been "left out in the cold," consider how magnanimous they would have been to their competitors had they succeeded in "knocking the persimons," and show how philosophically they can take a defeat.

☞ A great discovery of coal oil is said to have been made at Altoona and Hollidaysburg, Pa.—Exchange.

Huzza! That's news—to us at least; but it is an old saying that we must go from home to learn news about home. The great discovery of oil at Altoona and Hollidaysburg is likely about as true as many of the stories told about the great discoveries in the north and west. In consequence of this item we may expect a heavy influx of prospectors oil companies, and our farmers will no doubt put up the price of their lands 100 per cent. It is said that in boring for oil a vein of gas is first struck. We think gas is all that has yet been discovered in this region, and we are not certain that the quality we have is manufactured under ground.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. W. L. Spotswood, who has been appointed to this station, has arrived, and will preach in the M. E. Church on Sunday morning and evening next, at the usual hours.

SHERIFF'S SALES.—The following property will be disposed of at public sale at the Court House, in Hollidaysburg, on Wednesday, April 24th.

The interest of Joseph Hoover in a tract of 154 acres of land in Woodberry township, having thereon a dwelling house and stable.

The interest of Wm. Elder in a tract of 401 acres of land in Antes township.

CHECKING PERSPIRATION.—Hall's Journal of Health, in an article on this subject, says:—"Multitudes of lives would be saved every year, and an incalculable amount of human suffering would be prevented, if parents would begin to explain to their children at the age of three or four years, the danger which attends cooling off too quickly after exercise, and the importance of not standing still after exercise, or work or play, or of remaining exposed to a wind, or of sitting at an open window or door, or of pulling off any garment, even the hat or bonnet, while in a heat. It should be remembered by all, that a cold never comes without a cause, and that in four times out of five is the result of leaving off exercise too suddenly, or of remaining still in the wind, or in a cooler atmosphere than that in which the exercise has been taken. It is not necessary that perspiration should be visible, any exercise which excites the circulation beyond what is natural, causes a proportional increase of perspiration, the sudden checking of which induces dangerous diseases, and certain death, every day."

SPRING IS COMING.—We copy from Mr. Griswold's "Poets and Poetry of America," the following beautiful stanza. It is from the pen of a man who has been deaf and dumb from childhood. Who that speaks or hears can sing in more harmonious numbers?

Spring is coming! Spring is coming!
Birds are chirping, insects humming,
Flowers are peeping from their sleeping,
Streams escaped from Winter's keeping
In delightful freedom rushing,
Dance along in music gushing:
Scenes of late in deadness saddened,
Smile in animation gladdened;
All is beauty, all is mirth,
All is glory upon earth,
Shout we then with Nature's voice,
Welcome Spring! Rejoice! Rejoice!

Spring is coming! come my brother,
Let us rove with one another
To our well remembered wild-wood,
Flourishing to Nature's childhood;
Where a thousand flowers are springing,
And a thousand birds are singing;
Where the golden sunbeams quiver
On the verdure girdled river;
Let our youth of feeling out,
To the youth of Nature shout,
While the waves repeat our voice,
Welcome Spring! Rejoice! Rejoice!

☞ Here is a short item from the Erie City Dispatch to which we invite the attention of those of our citizens who are now about embarking their all in oil speculations:—

COMING TRUE—Our predictions relative to the oil speculation. Great distress is being felt among the small operators and doubtless hundreds will be totally ruined. Men of small means, but in easy circumstances, have in many instances mortgaged their homes in order to raise money to enter into the oil business, and in many cases the money so raised has been expended and not a smell of oil obtained. The result will be disastrous—more money has been invested in the business than will ever come out of it, and more men will be made miserable than happy in the operation. We have heard of one firm in this city investing $5,000 in the enterprise, without obtaining a single dollar in return. If such a result is attainable by so large an investment, what are we to expect of the smaller ones?

FINE SHAD-OHS!—Our friend, Jas. Lowther, of the "Model Store," has placed us under lasting obligations, by placing upon our table, yesterday morning, two as fine shad as we have ever seen. They were none of your wilted, half-starved Southern customers, of whom it would take two to make one shad-ow, but fine, fat, fresh fellows, just out of the Delaware. While it is evident that the shad-ows of those shad-ohs will soon vanish, may the shadow of the doner continue to increase. And, by the way, ladies and gentlemen, if you wish to see the shadow of the man who presented us with the shad-ohs, and at the same time examine a beautiful assortment of new goods, just from the city, step into the "Model" any day between the hours of 7 A. M. and 9 P. M.

☞ As the time for gardening will soon be on hand, it would be well for our horticultural friends to look around for good and reliable seeds. We have noticed a large assortment of Landreth's Philadelphia Garden Seeds at the Drug Store of A. Roush, lately brought from the city, and we would recommend to all, who are in need of any, to buy of him in preference to buying worthless trash which is huckstered through the country.

F. V. CEMETERY ASSOCIATION.—A meeting of the stockholders in the Altoona Fair View Cemetery Association will be held in the Town Council Room, on Thursday evening, April 11th, 1861, for the purpose of electing officers to serve during the ensuing year. It is hoped that there will be a full turn out of all interested.

☞ DR. JONES, of New York, who practiced in Altoona a week ago, with such unbounded success, has been persuaded to go to Hollidaysburg, where he can be consulted at the Exchange Hotel, April 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th. Dr. Jones treats old standing diseases of all kinds with the same success as the Eye and Ear. For the names of persons cured and successfully operated upon by him in this county, read the following:

Dr. Jones inserted an eye for me, which moves and appears natural, and gives me no pain nor inconvenience. A. STEWART, Altoona.

Dr. Jones operated on my right eye, which was badly disfigured. He has rendered the sight and appearance both natural.
JAMES KACY, Altoona.

My daughter's eye, which was turned in, is now natural. It was done without pain, in two minutes by Dr. Jones.
G. W. SPARKS, Altoona.

One of my eyes has been very much crossed from childhood. Dr. Jones straightened it in two minutes. Miss M. M. ANDERSON, near Altoona

My left eye has been very badly turned in and disfigured from infancy. Dr. Jones has operated upon it for me, entirely restoring it to its natural appearance.
Miss J. E. CALDWELL,
Birmingham, Huntingdon co., Pa.

Dr. Jones cured me of rheumatism and deafness of 12 years standing, after I had been pronounced incurable by the head Doctor of the State. ARCHY BALWIN, Altoona.

I have been cross-eyed all my life. The skillful Dr. Jones, of N. Y., straightened my eye in one minute. JACOB ALLMAN, Altoona, Pa.

My young daughter has been partly deaf, with a discharge and tumors in her ears, resulting from scarlet fever, for 9 years. My family physician could not cure it, and said it could not be cured. But, seeing the superior advantage and skill possessed by Dr. Jones, I placed my daughter under his treatment. She has been using his remedies and following his advice three weeks, and she is cured

Council Proceedings.

ALTOONA, April 1st, 1861.

Council met pursuant to adjournment. Present, A. A. Smyth, President. R. Greenwood, Daniel F. Laughman and C. R. Hostetter.

The minutes of last meeting were corrected, and then approved.

A bill from Hall & Neff, for services rendered as counsel for the Borough, was read and laid on the table.

A bill was presented and an order granted to W. W. Snyder for service rendered as Supervisor.

On motion of Daniel F. Laughman, Resolved, That, the Assessor be, and he is hereby required to observe, and carry out the provisions of the ordinance passed the 13th of July, A. D. 1854, relating to the assessment of a tax on dogs, &c., in this borough.

A memorial from the President and other officers of the "Fair-View Cemetery Association," asking the privilege of holding its sessions in the Council room, was received, and on motion of R. Greenwood, the privilege was granted on the express condition that said Association will defray all expenses for fuel, &c., consumed during its sessions.

A memorial from the members of the "String Band" of Altoona, asking the use of the Council room, was, on motion, thrown under the table, for the reason that by the provisions of the deed for the Borough property, the Council are precluded from using the Council room for such purposes.

On motion, the President appointed R. Greenwood and C. R. Hostetter, a committee to procure a draft or plot of Altoona, to be filed among the records of the Borough.

On motion adjourned to meet on the first Monday of May, 1861, at 7½ o'clock P. M.
Extracts from the Minutes.

LADIES' MITE SOCIETY.—The Ladies' Mite Society, of the Methodist Church, will meet at the house of Mr. J. W. Webber, on to-morrow (Friday) afternoon, at 2 o'clock. A full attendance of the members of the society is earnestly requested, as officers to serve during the ensuing year are to be elected, and a statement made of the receipts and expenditures of the past year. While there has not been as much interest taken in this society as there should be, those who have given their mite may well feel satisfied with what they have accomplished.—Turn out, ladies, and lend your aid to this slow but sure means of accomplishing great results.

ADAMS' EXPRESS.—Mr. E. M. Jones, who, for several years past, has acted as Agent of the Adams' Express Company, for this place, has resigned his position, and Mr. Daniel Laughman has been appointed in his stead. The change took place on Monday last. Mr. Jones was an obliging Agent and served the Company faithfully, as is evidenced by the fact that he has held a position with it for about ten years.—The office of the Company will hereafter be at Laughman's Clothing Store, in the Altoona House building. Look out for the neat sign in a circle of gold letters over the door.

HOUSE BURNED.—On Thursday evening last, our citizens were alarmed by the cry of fire, occasioned by a bright light seen to rise above the hill northwest of Altoona. A general rush was made in that direction, but it was soon discovered that the fire was some two miles out in the country, at the house of Wm. McGenty. When we arrived within sight of the fire, the house was almost consumed. The barn which stood close by was at one time thought to be on fire, but was shortly extinguished. We have not as yet learned whether there was any furniture burned.

BEAUTIFY YOUR PREMISES.—Every person who owns a foot of earth, or has the lease of a Southern wall whereupon to let a vine creep up, and lets the present spring go by without improving the opportunity of doing something toward adorning his or her premises, should be considered remiss in a very important duty.—No matter if you do not own the house and yard you occupy—still plant flowers, and vines, and shrubbery, for your own comfort and your own heart's sake.

"Let the flowers look upward in every place,
Through this beautiful world of ours;
For dear as the smiles on an old friend's face,
Is the smile of the bright, bright flowers."

☞ Prof. Sands, the bullet-proof man created a great sensation in this place, last week, but not half so much as that created by the removal of Hecht & Laughman's Clothing Store from their old stand, on Virginia street, to their new store room in the Altoona House.—Look for the new sign, in gold letters.

A NEW INVENTION.—A few days since we examined a new invention got up by our ingenious townsman, Mr. James Widney. It is a new coupling for cars, by means of which the danger attendant upon coupling cars, by the present mode, is entirely obviated. It is not entirely a self-coupling, although after the coupling pin is adjusted it requires no further attention, and in this is really a self-coupling. We are not sufficiently posted in the names given to the different parts of these appendages to cars to give a lucid description of the invention, but will give it hereafter, when the improvement has been more fully tested. It has been placed upon the passenger car on the Branch Road, between this place and Hollidaysburg, and gives satisfaction. We learn that it is also being placed upon a number of freight cars for the purpose of fully testing its merits. We think, from what we have seen of its workings, that it is a good invention and likely to be adopted. One good feature about it is that it is not likely to get out of working order, being very simple in its construction, and, we believe, costing less than the couplings now used.

ANOTHER BREAK-OUT.—On going into the shoe store of Mr. Shoemaker, in Masonic Hall, a few days since, we were suprised to find it "transmogrified" into a grocery and provision store, and our portly friend behind the counter ready to attend to the wants of customers. His stock consists of all kinds of groceries, flour, corn meal, spices, raisins, soap, candles, tubs, buckets, and a variety "too numerous to mention." He still continues to manufacture boots and shoes to order and has a large stock ready made. Call and see for yourselves.

POST MASTERS APPOINTED.—The following persons have been appointed Post Masters in this district, up to this date.—
James Bingham, Hollidaysburg.
George W. Patton, Altoona
W. J. Spencer, Williamsburg.
H. J. Kephart, Frankstown.
John Thompson, Ebensburg.
George A. Steel, Huntingdon.
George Raymond, Mail Messenger at Hollidaysburg, Pa., at $360 per annum.

The Memorial School.

The Female department of the above School will re-open on Monday the 8th inst., at 8½ o'clock A. M. R. W. OLIVER.

FIRST ARRIVAL OF THE SEASON.—We are now receiving a large stock of Spring goods, which we are able to offer at greatly reduced prices. We invite all persons wishing to purchase, to call and examine our new and beautiful stock of goods.
April 4. '61-1t] J. & J. LOWTHER.

DISSOLUTION.—Notice is hereby given that the co-partnership heretofore existing between Drs. Orr & Gemmill, in the practice of Medicine, has been this day discontinued by mutual agreement. The books of the firm are in the hands of Dr. J. M. Gemmill, who will continue the Practice of Medicine, and will occupy the same office, where he may at all times be consulted when not professionally engaged.
Altoona, April 4th, 1861.] D. R. GOOD.
J. M. GEMMILL.

March 28, 1861.-3t CAROLINE HUFF.

The House is a new two-story Frame building, 22 by 26 feet, with two rooms and hall on first floor and three rooms on second floor. There is also a stable on the lot. The lot is 50 feet front by 120 feet deep, and is in good order. Any person wishing to view the property or obtain further particulars will call upon Jacob Hesser.

LABOR-SAVING WASHING MACHINE.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVING purchased the right for Blair county, of

Tolhurst's Improved Washing Machine,

is now manufacturing them at Altoona, and intend to supply them to those persons throughout the county who desire a LABOR-SAVING MACHINE.

This machine is got up on an entirely new principle, and is considered, by those who have seen it in use, the best that has ever been brought before the public.

Among the many advantages of this machine over all others may be mentioned the following:

1st. Its simplicity of construction, making it almost impossible to get out of order.

2d. Its speed, which astonishes alike the operator and the looker on.

3rd. The facility with which it adapts itself to the bulk or quantity of clothes desired to be washed.

4th. It washes equally well the finest and lightest fabric as the coarsest and heaviest, such as bed-quilts, comforts, blankets, &c.

McMINN & DERN,
Altoona, Blair County, Pa.

We the undersigned, hereby certify that we are now using Tolhurst's Improved Washing Machine and are fully satisfied that it is a very excellent article of the kind; combining as it does great speed with little labor, and performing its work in the most satisfactory manner. We therefore cheerfully recommend it to all who desire a real labor-saving washing machine.

PROF. L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR!!

AN EFFECTIVE, SAFE AND ECONOMICAL COMPOUND,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR to its original color without dyeing, and preventing the hair from turning gray,

FOR PREVENTING BALDNESS, and curing it, when there is the least particle of vitality or recuperative energy remaining,

FOR REMOVING SCURF AND DANDRUFF, and all cutaneous affections at the Scalp,

FOR BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, imparting to it an unequalled gloss and brilliancy, making it soft and silky in its texture and causing it to curl readily.

The great celebrity and the increasing demand for this unequalled preparation, convince the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over any other preparation at present in use. It cleanses the head and scalp from dandruff and other cutaneous diseases, causes the hair to grow luxuriantly, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosening and thining, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restore the growth to those parts which have become bald, causing it to yield a fresh covering of hair.

There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations had failed. L. M. has in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facts, from persons of the highest respectability. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning gray until the latest period of life; and in cases where the hair has already changed its color, the use of the Invigorator will with certainty restore it to its original hue, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume for the toilet and a Hair Restorative it is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fragrance; and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls—hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article which none ought to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being.

ONLY 25 CENTS

per bottle, to be had at all respectable druggists and perfumers.

L. MILLER would call the attention of Parents and Guardians to the use of the Invigorator, in cases where the childrens' Hair inclines to be weak. The use of it lays the foundation for a good head of hair, as it removes any impurities that may have become connected with the scalp, the removal of which is necessary both for the health of the child, and the future appearance of its Hair.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the fac simile LOUIS MILLER being on the outer wrapper; also, L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR, N. Y. blown in the glass.

Wholesale Depot. 56 Dey St., and sold by all the principal Merchants and Druggists throughout the world.

Liberal discount to purchasers by the quantity.

I also desire to present to the American Public my

New and Improved Instantaneous LIQUID HAIR DYE

which after years of scientific experimenting I have brought to perfection. It dyes Black or Brown instantly without injury to the Hair or Skin, warranted the best article of the kind in existence.

Price, Only 50 Cents.

MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS and PHŒNIX BITTERS.

THESE MEDICINE HAVES NOW been before the public for a period of thirty years, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the

are well known to be infallible.

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind; FLATULENCY, Loss or Appetite, Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill Temper, Anxiety, Languor, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

COSTIVENESS, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.

FEVERS of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

The Life Medicines have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and GOUT in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.

DROPSIES of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder; they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of GRAVEL.

Also WORMS, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter to which these creatures adhere.

SCURVY, ULCERS, and INVETERATE SORES, by the perfect purity which these LIFE MEDICINES give to the blood, and all the humors.

SCORBUTIC ERUPTIONS and BAD COMPLEXIONS, by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state of which occasions all eruptive complaints, sallow, cloudy, and other disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of SALT RHEUM, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. COMMON COLDS and INFLUENZA will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

PILES.—The original proprietor of these medicines, was cured of Piles, of 33 years standing, by the use of the Life Medicines alone.

FEVER & AGUE.—For this scourge of the Western country, these medicines will be found a safe, speedy and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure by these medicines is permanent—try them, be satisfied, and be cured.

BILLIOUS FEVERS and LIVER COMPLAINTS.—General debility, loss of appetite and diseases of females—the medicines have been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description:—Kings Evil and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these remarkable Medicines. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Painters' Colic, are speedily cured.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of Mercury, will find these medicines a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparation of Sarsaparilla.

Salt River Passengers, Ho!

AS THE SUBSCRIBER WILL BE under the necessity of leaving early in November for the head waters of Salt River, in the ship UNION, which will positively sail about that time; and knowing that many of my friends will go along with me, will want an outfit. I take this opportunity of informing them as well as all my old friends and customers, that I have just returned from the East, where I purchased a large stock of Goods, which I am now opening at my store in North Ward, to which I invite inspection. It is the

LARGEST AND HANDSOMEST

as well as the CHEAPEST lot of Goods brought to the town this fall. The reason why I say the CHEAPEST is obvious to every reflecting mind, because as the season advances (the merchants in the east say) prices decline, therefore I have an advantage of from 20 to 25 per cent. over those who purchased early in the season, and I can and will sell cheaper than any other house in the place. Purchasers will thus at once see the propriety of at least examining my stock before buying elsewhere. My stock consists of all the newest styles of

LADIES' DRESS GOODS

for the season, also a full assortment of

GROCERIES,
BOOTS AND SHOES,
LADIES' SHAKER BONNETS,

Misses' Felt and Straw Hats, and everything in the line of Dry Goods and Notions which it is unnecessary to enumerate. All of which will be sold for cash, or to prompt paying monthly customers, or exchanged for all articles of Produce which can be consumed here or exchanged for goods in the East.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN COOKING STOVES.

CONSUMPTION OF SMOKE AND GAS AND SAVING OF FUEL.

The subscriber takes pleasure in offering to the public NEW GAS AND SMOKE CONSUMING Cooking Stove, recently patented, which is destined to supercede all others, as it requires than other stoves and is more easily, quickly and regularly heated. No unpleasant smell of gas arises from this stove from the fact that it is all consumed ere it can escape. There is no trouble from smoke as that unpleasant and often annoying exhalation is also consumed inside of the stove. Neither is there any danger of flues or chimneys becoming clogged with soot or the mortar loosened by the gas arising from coal fires.

ONE-THIRD LESS FUEL

Persons wishing to purchase stoves are invited to call at the store of the subscriber, in the Masonic Temple, and examine the above stoves. JOHN SHOEMAKER, Sole Agent for Blair County.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the couring year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.
